

Shared Education

The Difference We Can Make

Thursday 24th November 2016, Hilton Hotel, Templepatrick

AGENDA

- 09.00 Barbara Ward, SELF Convenor
Welcome and Introduction to SELF
- 09.20 Julie Thompson, Deputy Secretary, Education & Children's Services, Department of Education
Shared education – current context and way forward
- 09.30 Video – The Difference We Can Make
*Cross and Passion College and Ballycastle High School
Seaview Primary School and St Patrick's Primary School*
- 09.45 Professor Tony Gallagher, Queen's University Belfast
The evolution of shared education
- 10.00 Barbara Ward, SELF Convenor
Building the vision for shared education
- 10.15 Sharon Dobbin, Principal, St John Bosco Primary School
Shared education and community connections
- 10.35 Reflections and Feedback
-
- 10.50 Coffee Break
-
- 11.05 Ray Gilbert, Education Authority
The Education Authority and shared education
- 11.20 Tom Skelton, Headmaster, Dalriada School, Ballymoney
Cynthia Currie, Principal, Ballymoney High School
Máire Buckley, Acting Principal, Our Lady of Lourdes, Ballymoney
Shared education – teaching and learning – the journey to outstanding

11.40	Professor Joanne Hughes, Queen's University Belfast The reconciliation and social impact of shared education
12.00	Reflections and Feedback
12.15	Lunch
13.15	Sir Tim Brighouse How teachers can change lives through shared education opportunities
13.40	Marie Lindsay, Principal, St Mary's College Leading shared education
14.00	Professor Mark Hadfield, Cardiff University Shared education, professional learning and school improvement
14.25	Panel Discussion Moderator: Tara Mills
15.00	Barbara Ward, SELF Convenor Reflections and Feedback Wrap up and next steps for SELF
15.30	Close

www.selfni.org @SharedEdLF